ON THE SPOT
With the
PRESIDENT

What an exciting couple of months we have had here at Sandgate Theatre. In July we celebrated our 60th anniversary where I met the founding president. Then in August we performed Treasure Island: The Panto, and what a fun play too.

Several of our members have also been performing at various festivals around the south-east quarter with the one act plays, "The Inquest" and "All by Myself." Both of which will also be performing at Yarrageh and we hope you will join us in wishing the cast, crew and directors well.

So, that's all from me now and I look forward to seeing you all in September

Sandgate Theatre presents our
43rd ANNUAL DRAMA FESTIVAL

14th 15th & 16th SEPTEMBER 2018

Entry into the festival has now closed to give us a record twenty-seven entries.

We would also like to thank, Mr. Michael Beh for taking the time from his schedule to act as our Adjudicator.

There will be an amazing array of plays performing during the festival showcasing wonderful and talented actors, directors and script writers from the young to the seasoned. So please come along to support them and spread the word.

The cost of entry, as with past years, will be via donation.

"Treasure Island" the Panto

What a wonderful experience for young and old alike. The audiences loved it and the cast did too.

Thanks to the experienced adults, the young children blossomed, we had a Parrot, a Dog and many pirates. There are a lot of talented younger ones around. Thank-you to all involved.

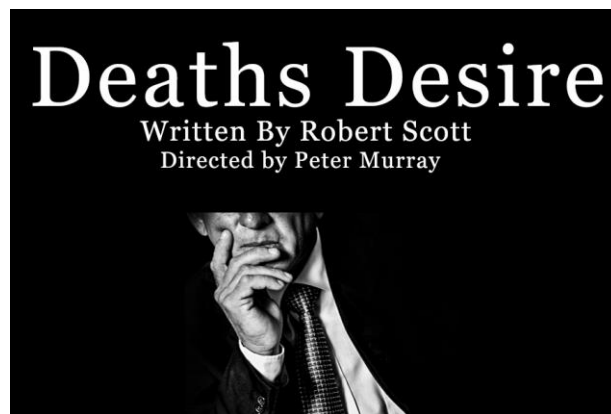

TRIVIA NIGHT

Don't forget about our upcoming TRIVIA NIGHT THIS YEAR with the theme of ABBA, is being held at the Hawks Club on Lemke Road, Taigum on the 19th October this it was such a brilliant night of fun, prizes and laughter last year and this one will be just as much fun. Get your trivia brains into gear and come along.

For those who dress up as one of the "Abba" group or someone from "Muriel's Wedding" there will be a prize, and the same for the best dressed at a table. We will be holding raffles and other spot prizes throughout the night.

This is Sandgate's last play of the year on the 9th, 10th, 16th, 17th, evening performances and 18th November matinee.

Lawrence's latest therapy client is both challenging and a little scary. Confessing to multiple marriages under false pretenses, and then murder, things only get worse when he reveals how much he knows about Lawrence's fiancée.

Estimated run time: 1 hour 44 minutes.

FOR THEATRE MEMBERS

Members wishing to buy a name-tag from Sandgate Theatre can do so for $5 these can be used while working at the theatre, back stage, costumes, FOH etc. Let us know if you are interested. They are metallic with a magnet back that can be fixed to your shirt.
